The City of Cedar Park and Tivity, Inc. Announce First Inaugural 'Chefs in the Park'

The exclusive event will cap off Cedar Park's 50th anniversary with a variety of unique cuisines, featuring Private Chefs from the region.

The City of Cedar Park and Tivity, Inc. announced its first inaugural "Chefs in the Park" event. This new and exciting food extravaganza will cap off Cedar Park's 50th anniversary on December 30, 2023, at Lakeline Park from 2:00-6:00 P.M.. Featuring a lineup of five accomplished, private local Chefs, each representing a unique culinary style, Chefs in the Park promises to be a mouthwatering delight for all who attend.

Chefs in the Park will offer attendees the chance to indulge in five separate, three-course meals curated by five remarkable Chefs, each specializing in different cuisines. Each guest will have the opportunity to savor a range of flavors from different corners of the world, all within the beautiful backdrop of Cedar Park. The event is a collaboration between Tivity, a platform to Book a Chef online, and the City of Cedar Park. These culinary experiences will also be accompanied by locally brewed beer and Texas wine.

Mayor of Cedar Park Jim Penniman-Morin said, "Chefs in the Park is a fantastic initiative that highlights the rich cultural tapestry of our City through the love of food. We're excited to cap off a year of celebrating Cedar Park's 50th anniversary of incorporation with this event."

Tivity's Co-Founder Zach Knight said, "We are thrilled to partner with the City of Cedar Park for this unique event. We can't wait to share this incredible dining experience with the Cedar Park community."

Tickets for Chefs in the Park will be available starting today, November 14, on the event website [cedarparktexas.gov/chefsinthepark]. In honor of the City's 50th anniversary, Early Bird ticket pricing of $50 plus fees per ticket for the first 50 people is available now. General Admission ticket price is $69 plus fees provides full access to all five private Chefs and menu items in addition to 3 drink tickets which can be redeemed for beer and/or wine. To learn more, please go to the event website [cedarparktexas.gov/chefsinthepark].
