

Official news about the City of Cedar Park from the City of Cedar Park.

2019 Novel Coronavirus Outbreak Information

We know these are challenging times for all of us. In an effort to keep you and your neighbors updated on all the important announcements and actions being taken weekly, we will be distributing a special COVID-19 Edition of the Pulse each Friday. The City remains committed to providing services to our community and customers. We are available by phone and we are encouraging the public to utilize technology to interact with the City as many of our services are available online. We are continually evaluating the best ways to provide city services while limiting in-person public contact to comply with recommendations from the counties and public health agencies and to provide a safe and healthy work environment for staff. Please follow us on Facebook for regular updates. This is an ever changing time for everyone. Remember, we are all in this together!
